PRESS RELEASE

Have you ever planned a European vacation and thought it would be fun to do a little genealogy research while there? Were you stumped at how to organize before departing and wondering how to find those elusive records in town and villages once you arrived? Well, help is on the way!

The Indian River Genealogical Society's March 10, 2009 meeting will feature Dr. James M. and Barbara A. Ragusa discussing "Lessons Learned from Genealogy Research in Western and Eastern Europe". The Ragusas, who have traveled to Wales, the Czech and Slovak Republics, Austria, Hungary and Sicily, will share their strategies for a successful genealogy research trip.

The society meets Tuesday, March 10 at 9:30 AM in the first floor meeting room of the Indian River County Main Library, 1600 21st Street, Vero Beach. Following a brief business meeting and refreshments, the program will begin at 10:45 AM. All general meetings of the IRGS are free and open to the public. For more information, check the website www.irgs.org or call Suzy Bromwell (772) 492-4012.
