PRESS RELEASE

The Indian River Genealogy Society's January 13, 2009 program is titled "Recharge Your Blood Lines with DNA". The society is pleased to invite the public to hear Connie Bradish, genealogist and trained scientist, explain and answer questions about how DNA can be used in family history research.

The meeting will be held at 9:30 AM in the first floor meeting room of the Indian River County Main Library, Vero Beach. Following a brief business meeting, refreshments will be served. The program will begin at 10:15 AM and continue until approximately 12:30 PM. For more information, please contact Suzy Bromwell at (772) 492-4012.

The IRGS is a non-profit organization dedicated to helping its members and guests further their genealogical research by providing lectures, seminars and study groups. Annual membership is $25. General meetings, held September through May, are free and open to the public. The society's newsletter may be accessed through the Web site www.irgs.org.
