PRESS RELEASE

What's Your Problem?

At the Indian River Genealogical Society's meeting Tuesday, April 14, a panel of experienced researchers will endeavor to answer audience members' questions and make suggestions to help break through genealogy brick walls.

Two panelists are from neighboring genealogy societies and three are members of IRGS. Their experience is vast, including DNA, photo dating, transcribing documents, genealogy software, Roots Magic, Italy, Canada, and many regions of the US.

To aid our panelists in their preparation, persons with genealogy questions are asked to submit them to Pete Kersey at petenoel@comcast.net.

IRGS meetings are held in the large conference room on the first floor of the Indian River County Main Library, 1600 21st Street, Vero Beach. A brief business session convenes at 9:30 AM, to be followed by refreshments. The program titled, "What's Your Problem? ", will begin about 11:45 AM. All general meetings of the IRGS are free and open to the public.

For more information about the Indian River Genealogical Society, check our website: www.irgs.org. It includes membership information, past newsletters and links to topics and events of interest to genealogy researchers.
