

Monthly Meeting – 9:30 AM - Tuesday, March 13, 2012

Indian River County Main Library

How and Why the Irish left their homeland

This Irish experience in the United States follows immigrants from arrival to empowerment, from before our American Revolution through the dark days of the Great Famine to John F. Kennedy's election to the presidency.

Featured Speaker: Jay P. Dolan PhD

Jay Dolan is professor emeritus of history at the University of Notre Dame. Once retired from teaching in 2004, Jay wrote 'The Irish Americans' which highlights the Irish culture and history both in Ireland and in the United States. He is a resident of Vero Beach and enjoys our fine environment. He is the author of many books in addition to the "The Irish Americans" which are available in our IRC Library, The Vero Beach Book Store and on Amazon. Bring your copies of his books to the monthly meeting in March and he has kindly agreed to autograph them for you.
